

Please have hearings. We need to expand the ownership to as many groups as possible, including a strengthened role for public ownership. There are moving toward greater monopolistic control of the media and more curtailment and lesser information of a critical nature.